

What to Say...

 - Avoid these phrases.  - Instead use these.

-  - I recently became involved.
-  - I'm working on a project. Or I am on a challenge.

-  - I'd like you to get involved. Or I'd like to get you involved.
-  - I'm looking for the right person.

-  - Are you looking for a business opportunity?
-  - Are you open? Or Do you keep your options open for expansion / diversification?

-  - I think you would love this.
-  - This may or may not be for you.

-  - You would be good at this.
-  - This might be lucrative for you.

-  - I am looking at a new business opportunity.
-  - I am looking at a business idea or project.

-  - Are you interested?
-  - You might want to see this.

-  - I want you to
-  - You might want to Or You might benefit from

-  - I want
-  - I thought you might want to know

-  - You should
-  - Is there any reason you wouldn't want to

-  - You need
-  - I don't suppose you would

-  - What if I told you
-  - What if you knew

-  - Come to a meeting
-  - Meet some other members of the team.

-  - So what do you thing? Or Do you like it?
-  - What did you like best about what you say?

-  - Guys Or Folks Or Gang
-  - You Or Everyone Or Everybody Or Ladies and Gentlemen

-  - DEAL Or Opportunity
-  - Offer Or Idea Or Opportunity