News Alert Class: God's Promise

January 1, 2006

Many people, even Christian's ask me, "when will the world come to an end?" This question worded another way really reveals what the person is really asking. Will God ever destroy the earth and me with it? You see, it's not that we are overly concerned about the earth - we are really concerned about our own destruction. What this question really points out is the yearning we all have to LIVE! God created us to never die and to live with Him eternally forever. This is why this question seems to haunt humanity. Allow me to put the question to rest once and for all. I have just finished my cover to cover Bible reading. I start in Genesis and keep reading until I get through Revelation and then I start all over again reading the Word of God cover to cover. Come to think about, how appropriate that I should be in Genesis at the beginning of a New Year... God is good and does have a great sense of humor.

I thought we should set the tone for the New Year, 2006, with a positive prophecy! First I'll list the scripture and then I'll provide some commentary.

1. Genesis 8:20-22; Then Noah built an altar to the Lord, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled a soothing aroma. Then the Lord said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done. "While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, Cold and heat, Winter and summer, And day and night Shall not cease."
2. Please read Isaiah 54 right now it will bless your heart. This chapter is so encouraging to the heart and spirit, no matter how many times I read it I'm blown away by it. Verse 17 is out of this world literally!

Now let's answer the question, "when will the world come to an end?" The simple answer – NEVER! If we allow the Bible to interpret itself and we do not read into it, which we should never do by the way, the scripture is plain, so plain a three year old will understand it.

As long as there are seasons, day and night, the world will continue. When the world ceases to have seasons, day and night, then the LORD is free from His promise to all of us. I've read the Bible cover to cover many times over the last 33 years and I don't know of any scripture where seasons or day and night cease. I do know of references to day and night being shortened in Revelation, but God's promise specifically addresses and covers day and night ceasing. Satan knows this promise and I believe this is one of the reasons why he instructs the Antichrist to attempt to change times and laws (Daniel 7:25). In his warped evil mind he actually thinks he can cause the destruction of the world by bringing God's promise to an end. How evil and blind is that?

Being a retired Financial & Estate Planner, I take the terms of any insurance policy seriously and literally. Therefore, at least in our lifetimes, or maybe over the next couple of thousand years, the world will not cease to exist. Based on this we can all sleep well at night knowing that our lives and existence here on earth are protected and insured by God Himself! Imagine that a spiritual insurance policy of protection. Don't you love God and how he works? I do!

Rest well humanity - the world doesn't come to an end! Happy New Year to ALL!

The world may go through hell, but after that dark night is over the light of our LORD and SAVIOR, Yeshua HaMashiach, Jesus Christ will dawn upon the entire globe and we who love Him will rule and reign with Him 1,000 years! Revelation 20:4-6.
