Note from Bro Stef: Israel has already made the decision to attack Iran's nuclear facilities by the end of March `06. Either we do it or they will. What will happen after that is anyone's guess. However, I'm concerned because now we have clear and unmistakable evidence that Russia is up to their eyeballs in protecting Iran and in assisting them with the building of a nuclear arsenal.

We must remember that Russia's ally is Iran, as Israel is ours. Therefore, this should not be a surprise to anyone. The question I have is this. Will Iran's nuclear facility, that Russia helped build, if it is destroyed cause the Arabs and Russia to march against Israel? It looks like 2006 is going to be a telling year before it even get's started!

Note from Bro Stef: I've been warning our subscribers about this for years. The EU wanted to assert itself into the political arena where Israel is concerned and really wants to take over the leadership role and see the U.S. bow out. If George Bush needed a reason to exit this political nightmare now he has it. Mark my words, "The EU will cause nothing but havoc in this situation." Eventually they will have helped to bring about the next world war.

Note from Bro Stef: Now that our Sec. of State, Condi Rice has pushed to have the EU watch the Rafah terminal at the border with the Sinai, you can see what will happen... All the murders will get in and be a stone's throw away from Israel. The EU doesn't think these guys are that bad, they think that if you pacify them they will become real nice guys. This is exactly what Europe did in WW II. The European's thought that if you gave Hitler everything he wanted he would spare you. History teaches us that the exact opposite is true. The more you cave in to these bad guys the more risk you bring upon yourself and the world. In this case, the more risk is brought against Israel and that will eventually start WW III. This is a very dangerous game the EU and United States are playing. They really don't have a clue as to what they are doing.

Rabbi: Disengage from State

In new book, Rabbi Shalom Dov Wolpe says Israel should be replaced with 'true Kingdom of David,' calls on followers to refrain from praying for Jewish state's wellbeing. 'We are now in exile,' he says Efrat Weiss a prominent Jewish messianist has called for religious Jews to disengage from the State of Israel due to the evacuation of Jewish communities in the Gaza Strip last summer.

Note from Bro Stef: Whether you agree with the articles point of view or not, it shows the yearning in the Jewish mind set and heart to see the return of their promised Messiah. I've known the Lord since 1975 and I can not remember a time as this where the Jewish people had so much awareness of the Messiah's return. Back in the '70's it was thought that it would happen, but everyone believed it wouldn't be in their lifetimes. Today, the people actually believe the return of Messiah will be in their lifetimes. Oh what 30 plus years will do along with constant war and blood shed...

So, Jews, the goyim will win after all?

By Stan Goodenough

November 28th, 2005

According to the newspapers here in Israel, Jews are rejoicing because the International Federation of the Red Cross and the Red Crescent Societies (IFRCRC) has finally agreed to open its doors to the Red Shield (or Star) of David, the Israeli organization that offers equivalent services to the Red Cross and Red Crescent.

Ok, so there's a small catch: The Israelis cannot actually use their Red Star of David in this new arrangement, but must agree to a new symbol, a Red Crystal, inside which, for advertising purposes alone, they may now and then insert a small Star of David.

Note from Bro Stef: The Bible does say that during the Millennium (1,000 yr) reign of Christ that a man who's 120 years old will be a young man. With studies and discoveries like this who knows what God may be using to assist humanity in lengthening it's life spans and improving the quality of life. Interesting science for sure...

Farkash sets deadline for strike on Iran|
By SHEERA CLAIRE FRENKEL

After March Israel must be prepared to use means other than diplomacy to halt Iran's nuclear weapons program, warned the head of the military intelligence Wednesday.

Military Intelligence Chief Aharon Zeevi Farkash would not detail other options, but sources on the Knesset's Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee, which Farkash was addressing, said it was clear that Israel would have to consider taking military action against Iran.

URGENT PERSONAL MESSAGE from Hal

TBN Suspends IIB

While on my recent thrilling tour to Israel, I received a distinct warning from the Lord. This warning came at just the time the Lord was making me fully aware of the exponential increase in outreach my International Intelligence Briefing program on TBN has experienced in just this year.

Emails from all over the world continuously inform me of the people who regularly watch the IIB program. They share how many of their friends came to faith in Christ as a result of watching it. Several shared how they gather a group each week in their homes to watch the IIB program. Two different missionaries in Kenya said that they did this. Both reported that a number of young people have accepted Christ in these sessions.
