Hi There Again {!firstname} !

The hurricane has left many homeless and hurting. We are called on by God to pray and do good to those who are in need. The scriptures teach us an important lesson in James 4:17; "Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin." The Lord also asks us to be lights to the world around us. He asks us to be different, to be sensitive to the needs of people around us. We are His ambassadors - He uses us to be representations of His goodness!

In times like this, we have the opportunity to help, pray for and send financial support to those who are in need. We do this in the name of our God Yeshua! Allow me to encourage you to take a moment today and put your "faith" into action - to encourage someone who needs it. Join with me and my family in helping those who are suffering and in pain today! Many of those in need are fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, let's not forget this as well. If you can not assist financially, please pray. Prayer is the most powerful weapon we as believer's have. It goes without saying that all of us who are believer's in Yeshua most certainly should be praying.

I present the headline below to provoke your thinking only. I am obligated to "not" censor the debate that is being debated in the country right now. I think it is spiritually healthy for us to talk about these issues. My wife and had a lengthy discussion on this issue today. It is with respect and a heart that is hurting for and with the hurricane victims, that I prayerfully submit this article to you for your review...

Now for the Headline Today:

Did God Send the Hurricane?

This natural disaster is bringing together a perfect storm of environmentalist and religious doomsday sayers.

What caused Hurricane Katrina to slam the U.S. Gulf Coast? Was it a typical late-summer tropical storm caused by wind, water, and heat? Mother Nature crying out on behalf of the earth's pain? An angry God?

Depends whom you ask. All along the theological and political spectrum, Katrina has crystallized people's fears into a now-familiar brew of apocalyptic theories similar to what we saw after September 11 and after the Asian tsunami several months ago.

You will of course have to decide for yourself what to make of this never seen before disaster in America. For whatever it's worth, here's my take on this...

As I watched the news reports and heard some of what people were saying, my heart grew very heavy, knowing that women, men, children, mom's, dad's and grandparents are dead and families are torn apart.

I couldn't help but pray and ask God to touch, comfort and bring hope to those that have been so affected by this tragedy. My heart and mine could not even wrestle with how or who did this. In my mind that is not really what is important. What is important to me, we serve a God that knows, sees and is completely aware of everything that happens on this planet. Nothing escapes His loving and caring eyes. God weeps with those who are weeping. Our God hurts with those who are hurting. God's heart knows, feels and is keenly aware of all the sorrow and pain this part of the United States is going through right now.

All that matters right now, is that we allow God to use us as His instruments of care, compassion, strength and love. Allow the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to use you today to bring a word of encouragement and love to someone who is hurting because of this tragedy. Be open, be ready and by all means pray that God will use this tragedy to save souls, to bring healing to the broken hearted.

Ephesians 2:4-10; But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

God Bless you for caring and praying today!

Blessings and keep looking up He's Coming Real Soon,
